CA MCLE:  1.0 hour  Playing by the Discovery Rules: The Impact of the New Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on Litigation Discovery and Information Governance

The 2015 revisions to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have impacted the federal litigation practice, especially practices surrounding discovery and information governance. This program will discuss the actual and potential impact of the revisions to the scope and timing of discovery, and the manner of objections; the enhanced role of proportionality and cooperation; and the specifics of spoliation of electronically-stored information. We will also explore the proactive information governance steps every enterprise needs to take to prepare before litigation strikes.

Giving Back but Saving Something for Self: Balancing Community Service and Wellness

Charity begins at home, right?! Very often, diverse lawyers are THE legal resource for their communities, friends, and families, AND the spokesperson on diversity issues at work. And with many of us now personally impacted by the byproducts of the current social and political environment, “unplugging” for the sake of our own sanity falls by the wayside. Join our panel for a candid, honest and interactive discussion on balancing commitment with healthfulness.

Speakers:

Beau Cole, Director, Maron Marvel Bradley Anderson & Tardy LLC - Moderator

Wendy Ashley, PsyD, LCSW, Associate Professor, California State University, Northridge
